

Rules and Regulations For ANIMALS in OPEN CLASS Guthrie County Fair

ALL OPEN CLASS and Jackpot shows will be organized by the superintendent or coordinator in each division. Please review each livestock division for class changes that will take place in 2023

Note: 4-H and FFA members need to refer to their own rules.

Please refer to the individual listings for the different species for the Superintendent who is in charge, his/her phone number, and any additional information needed for entering.

1. All Open class livestock entries are to be made with each division superintendent.
2. Fees are to be paid to the superintendent. If a stall is used at any time, stall rent will also need to be paid.
3. No overnight tie outs will be allowed. If an emergency situation should arise, a reverse decision may be made by the Fair Board. All exhibitors of stock are required to keep their stock in their proper stalls.
4. Bagged bedding will be available on the fairgrounds at a reasonable cost. Designated sale hours will be posted. Only shaved bedding will be allowed.
5. Every animal entered for competition shall be under control of the board of fair directors. The association will not, in any case, be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.
6. All open class livestock may come into the fairgrounds the day of the show.
7. All open class livestock may be released after their respective shows. If animals are staying at the fair, stall rent must be paid
8. Pedigrees must be presented, if requested, at the time the entries are made.
9. If it is ascertained that any exhibitor has made or caused to be made, any false statements in regard to any animal or article exhibited, or if any exhibitor shall attempt to interfere with, or influence the judges in the performance of their duties, the exhibitor shall be excluded from the competition or exhibition.
10. Decision of the awarding committee shall be final, except in cases of fraud or protest.
11. All fast riding or any driving within the enclosure during the fair is strictly forbidden except by the direction of the fair board.
12. No dogs allowed on the grounds unless they are being judged or are a service animal. Dogs must be on a leash at all times.
13. No one will be allowed to sleep, stay the night, or camp in the barns.
14. No ATV's, golf carts, scooters, skid loaders, or UTV's will be driven on the fair grounds, except by fair board personnel or those with medical necessity. All of the aforementioned will be approved in the secretary's office.
15. If you rented a stall, it is the exhibitor's responsibility to clean that stall.

Equal Opportunity/Non-Discrimination Policy
